FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

It's a MidWest thing.

ANNUAL REPORT

OUR MEMBERS

2024 was a year of resilience, growth, and connection for MidWest America Federal Credit Union. We encountered challenges and opportunities. The economy experienced shifts driven by changing market conditions, technological advancements, and evolving member needs. Inflationary pressures eased but remained an obstacle for many. Despite these issues, the spirit of resilience defined our communities, and your credit union stood strong alongside you every step of the way.

We saw continued growth in digital banking, with more members embracing convenient, secure ways to manage their finances. At the same time, the personal connections remained vital. Our branches remained hubs of support, offering financial guidance tailored to each member's unique goals. We also conducted more outreach and financial education classes in our communities to assist our members.

2024 was another strong financial year for MidWest America. Our growth in 2024 was entirely organic—driven by the trust and loyalty of our members, not through mergers or acquisitions. Assets grew 9.65% to over $900 million propelling us up two spots to be the 15th largest Indiana based credit union. We surpassed our net income goal and generated a ROA of 0.88%. The loan delinquency over 60 days stood at 0.57%. Our net worth ratio was a strong 14.68%, considerably above the level required to be considered well-capitalized. Virtually every financial metric was superior to our state and national peer groups.

At your credit union, we define success by more than just the financial numbers. We make a difference in the lives of our members and the community. We embedded this into our updated vision and mission statements –

- Our Vision to open doors to economic opportunities and create a lasting impact for our employees, members, and community.
- Our Mission to provide every member regardless of their economic situation with personalized financial services to equip them for success.

During 2024, we established value statements to clearly articulate the core principles and beliefs which guide your credit union's decisions, behaviors, and culture.

We also established our DEIB promise. Unlike what we hear in mainstream media and from politicians, our promise is that we will maintain a workplace where everyone is valued, respected, and empowered regardless of skin color, ethnicity, age, gender, religion, social economic background, disability, veteran status or any other diverse attribute.

During 2024, we implemented new technologies, developed new products, introduced new branding, updated facilities, and looked for ways to make a difference for our members and community. In this annual report you find further information about the impact we made in 2024.

Yet despite the good being done not only by MidWest America, but by the credit union movement in general, there are voices coming from certain groups and individuals questioning the tax-exempt status of credit unions. Some forget credit unions are not-for-profit financial cooperatives started because banks were not meeting the needs of the common person. Credit unions being exempt from federal income taxes (credit unions pay payroll taxes, property taxes, etc.) is not a loophole or an unfair advantage; it's a reflection of our distinct purpose. We exist to serve people, not to generate profit, and every dollar saved in taxes is reinvested into the financial well-being of our members and communities. Thanks to the tax-exemption, credit unions return over $36 billion to the economy annually which far exceeds the estimated $3 billion cost. The benefit we bring to the economy significantly outweighs the cost of the tax-exemption. Unfortunately, the bank lobbying groups are painting this in a much different light. We need to make sure we remind our political representatives of the facts.

In a year of change, one thing remained constant: our dedication to you. Together, we navigated the complexities of 2024 with resilience, innovation, and a renewed focus on building a stronger financial future for all. We thank every member for your business, trust, and belief in us as your credit union. Thank you to all volunteers, directors, and teammates for making MidWest America successful. As we look ahead to 2026, we eagerly anticipate celebrating our 90th anniversary—a milestone made possible by your dedication and confidence in MidWest America Federal Credit Union.

SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE'S REPORT

The Supervisory Committee of MidWest America Federal Credit Union consists of five members appointed by the Board of Directors. The Supervisory Committee is responsible for independently monitoring and assessing the credit union's financial condition, operations, and internal controls along with adherence to approved policies and procedures.

The Supervisory Committee's main duties are to oversee a comprehensive annual financial statement audit of the credit union and ensure other audits are conducted as necessary. The Supervisory Committee retained the services of Plante Moran, PLLC, an independent certified accounting firm, to complete the 2024 audit. No material discrepancies or weaknesses were noted, and the audit indicated the credit union's records were being properly maintained in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP).

In addition to the annual audit, a team of Internal Auditors, who report directly to the Supervisory Committee, has developed an audit plan using appropriate risk-based methodology to conduct audits in numerous areas including branch audits and regulatory compliance audits. The Internal Audit staff plays a critical role in ensuring the Supervisory Committee has the information to fulfill its responsibilities.

Based on the results of all internal and external audits conducted in 2024, the Supervisory Committee believes your credit union continues to be financially strong, well managed, and its policies and procedures are effective.

Please continue to report all discrepancies or irregularities in any account transactions to the Supervisory Committee. The volunteer members of the Supervisory Committee, along with our Internal Auditors, Amy Heltzel, Teresa Jones, and Megan Pierce, pledge to stay alert and respond to your concerns in 2025.

It has been a privilege to represent the Supervisory Committee. We thank the Board of Directors, members, and staff for their assistance, support, involvement, and cooperation during 2024.

Respectfully submitted, The Supervisory Committee
